

Richard Sugden Library Wi-Fi Mobile Hot Spots

- Hot Spots are not “holdable”
 - You must come into the library to get a hot spot.
 - You can check on-line to see if any are available.
 - We will not hold them even if you call on the phone.
- After returning a Hot Spot, a patron must wait a minimum of 30 calendar days before checking out another one.
 - After the 30 days, you may check on-line or at the library to see if one is available. They are now first come first serve.

- Spencer residents eighteen or older (18+), with a valid C/MMARS Library card
- Hot Spots must be picked up and returned at the Richard Sugden Library, Spencer.
- Hot Spots must not be returned in the book drop. They must be handed to a staff member.
- Hot Spots are
 - not holdable,
 - not renewable;
 - not available for Interlibrary loan (ILL); or sent through delivery.
- Overdue Hot Spots will be deactivated within 2 business days of being overdue.
- The RSL reserves the right to refuse use of a device to patrons known to abuse, lose, or fail to return materials or equipment in a timely manner.
- If all parts of the Hot Spot kit are not returned in the case, the Hot Spot will remain checked out to the patron and fines will continue to accrue until all parts are returned or the maximum fines are reached.
- Patrons are responsible for damage, loss, or theft of the Hot Spot and all contents of the kit while it is checked out to them.
- The RSL is not responsible for any liability, damages, or expense connected to patron use of a Wi-Fi Hot Spot.
- Replacement Hot Spots will not be accepted from any patron. Patrons will be responsible for the entire replacement cost of the Hot Spot kit ($135.00). If individual items from the kit are lost, stolen or damaged, the replacement cost will vary depending on the cost of the items.
